State v. Williams-Walker, __Wn.2d __, 2010 WL 118211, *14-15 (Jan. 14, 2010) (Because the sentencing judge "is bound" by the special verdict form, and regardless of the charging document or the trial evidence, the trial court lacks authority to impose firearm sentencing enhancement when the jury's special verdict form finds the defendant was armed "with a deadly weapon." Furthermore, under article I, sections 21 and 22, the harmless error doctrine does not apply).
